NORTHWEST MISSOURI STATE COLLEGE—Teke initiated 24 new fraters last Spring. On Public Service Weekend the fraters worked in cooperation with the Maryville City Council and the JC's on a community clean-up project. The Red Carnation Ball was held May 23rd. Joel Grier was elected secretary-treasurer of the Senior Class. Dan Leighninger, Dave Harrison and Dave White are serving on the IFC—Ron Thompson is IFC President. Sophomore Class President Bruce Stadlman and Leighninger are active on the Student Senate. Dr. Richard Quinn is a new Chapter Advisor to serve with Bob Cotter. Varsity athletes include Russ Gallinger, football and baseball; Steve Eckard, basketball and track; Phil Stutzman, basketball; Jerry Gallinger, Sam Hankins and Rob Wright, baseball; Don Morris, swimming and track; Russ Lusso, track; Captain Bob Sanders, Jon Grubb and Glen Saving, swimming; Mark Richmond, swimming and tennis; Dave White, Dave Harrison, Guy Humphreys and Court Rush, golf. Rollie Stadlman is manager of the campus radio station. The Teke #1 bowling team easily outdistanced the field in capturing a first place trophy. During Ugly Man Week, TKE won first in the carnival and "Beauty and the Beast" competition while taking second in the skits and overall competition. Thirteen new Daughters were tapped for the Order of Diana during the Red Carnation Ball. (70 Fraters)
